EIGHTEENTH DAY
MORNING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m., with President Pro Tem Steve Poulton presiding.

Roll Call- All Senators present, except Senators Hale, Hellewell, Jenkins, and President Mansell, excused

Prayer - Rabbi Frederick Wenger, Congregation Kol Ami, Salt Lake City

On motion of Senator Evans, the words of Rabbi Wenger will be spread upon the pages of the Senate Journal

Thank you for very much for the privilege of joining you here today. It was a year ago when I stood here at this place to lead you in prayer to open your day session. At that point, I remember distinctly asking you to find comfort in your faith. Senator Howard Steiner's wife passed away at that point in time, one who devoted her life to children. A pediatrician herself, she passed away in childbirth. Now I am here, and it is a year later, and I don't know if you want to invite me back because today is another sad day. Today we remember the passing of Chelsea Anne Hale and our hearts are with her family, her mother, who is your colleague, and all of her loved ones. This causes us, dear friends, to think of children and how precious they are to us, and to remember some words from Isaiah, who said, "and all your children shall be taught of the Lord and great shall be the peace of your children. (Here he spoke in Hebrew) . And there was a rabbina commentator who said, "don't say B'niah, your children," but punning on that expression, said, "say Bonia, your builders." Our children are our builders, and every single time one of them is lost to us, we are diminished and part of our building is torn down. Master of the universe, Lord of our lives, we ask you to watch over our children. We ask you to give us the perspective to watch over them as well. Give us the resources of wisdom to keep them safe, to help them grow in wisdom, and to help them grow into the kind of adults that will make Utah proud. Children who grow into people who will be willing to do your will with a perfect heart and will have the resources of mind and spirit to help our society grow closer to your more precious gift, the gift of peace. Even as we mourn the loss of children, we pray for the children that you have given to us, and as a house, let us consecrate ourselves to make this state a good place for children in every way and every respect. For long after we have deliberated, argued, made peace with each other, returned to argue and make peace again, the children will be here. May this place be a place of goodness and wholesome living for all of them. Dear God, we ask you to strengthen us in our task. Give us the strength to remain patient through all the challenges, both of our enemies and of our friends. We ask you also to draw us closer to you in acts of kindness, peace and love. We pause for a moment of silence that all of us may offer up this, or our own individual prayer in our own unique way. Praised are you eternal our God, ruler of the universe who has kept us in life, who has preserved us and brought us to our sacred task on this sacred day. Amen.
